Kindly Note:

The refund so determined is proposed to be adjusted against the outstanding demand(s) as shown in the “Outstanding Demand table” below for which time of 21 days is granted, from the date of this Intimation.

Details of Outstanding Demand and interest payable # u/s 220(2)

Sl. No.	A.Y.	T.Y.	Demand Uploaded By	Section Code	Demand Order Date	Demand Reference Number	Taxpayer's Response	AO's Response	Outstanding Demand in (₹)	Block Period
1	2020	null	CPC	1431b	14-	2021202037010269772T	Collectable	No	300	null

1. In case, there is no response within 21 days from date of this Intimation or where Tax payer agrees with the demands outstanding, the refund due will be adjusted/not adjusted against demands outstanding, based on response provided by the Jurisdictional Assessing Officer(JAO) on demand recovery module.
2. In case the Tax payer disagrees with any of the Outstanding demand(s), in such case the JAO will get additional 21 days to submit the responses. The final adjustment in these Tax payer disagreed demand(s) will be based on the responses submitted by both Tax payer and JAOs
3. Tax payers can view the responses submitted by themselves and JAO in CPC 2.0 Portal, in the below path Dashboard->e filing->User Profile Administration -> Response to Outstanding Demand.

Important: CPC-ITR being an automated processing center, any response to Outstanding demand(s) should be provided online in the below link only and response submitted through either email or paper based communication cannot be taken into consideration. Hence, it is requested to submit the responses online and not to send any response in either email or paper mode to CPC.

Procedure for filing an online response:

The outstanding demand as on that date will be considered for adjustment against your refund, if you do not take any action within 21 days from the date of this communication.

Note:

The Interest demand # under Section 220(2) is on account of the delay in payment of the principal demand of the assessment year. This indicates that the principal demand has already been paid/ adjusted and solely the interest demand is outstanding. This interest demand will be adjusted and does not require any confirmation.

Interest for the delayed payment of regular assessment tax:

- Interest u/s 220(2) of IT Act 1961 up to 31 Mar 2026.
- Interest u/s 411 of IT Act 2025 from 01 Apr 2026.

Receipt and acknowledgment of Return of income/communications at CPC will be based on the Centralised Processing of Returns Scheme 2011, Notification No. 02/2012 dated 04/01/2012 and subsequent amendments in this regard.
